Is it larger than my fist?

Is it manmade?

Is it made of plastic?

narrow questions

Is it a coin?

Liars Club

Get a team of students. One will tell the truth about painting--its real name. The others will make lies.

Then they tell their stories to the class and the class guesses.

This painting is called The Memory of My Lost Youth by Isamu Noguchi. He is a prominent Japanese American artist. He painted this after he became a Guggenheim Fellow in Paris, around 1899.

He fell in love with a woman who, you can see, is the main figure of painting in a red dress in the center in the picture, dancing with a man over there. However, because of their status distinction, he could not marry her.

Let me tell you, my friends, this is one of many paintings done by a great Guatemalan artist who paints inspired in real life sceneries. He uses bright colors and tries to transcend the painting by exposing the emotional side. Temptation is the most accurate translation in English for from the Spanish. This painting is by Mario Gonzalez Chavajay

3.

The Future of Women (1910) is the last painting of the Dutch painter and graphic artist, Hendrik Van Koekkoek. Painted in a drying and colorant linseed oil, varnish and lacquer with rust-inhibiting pigment, it was well-acknowledged for the finest dab of patriotism (colors representing the national flag), joy, celebration, and most importantly, the emancipation of women, at the birth of postmodern society.

4.

This painting is The Dance of Life by Edvard Munch. We can see, that at this moonlit dance on a summer evening in Norway, there are women of different ages, and the painting deals with everlasting cycles of life. Munch was searching for a way to show the “higher rhythm of nature.”

Name 3 Things ...

Directions: 1. In turns, roll the die. 2. When you land on a space, say three things according to the subject written there. 3. If you or another player lands on the same space twice, say three new things.

Examples:

*"Three things that are green. A plant. A US dollar. An alligator."

*"Three things that are ancient. Okay, the Pyramids of Egypt are pretty ancient. They were built thousands of years ago. Next. The Universe. Nothing is more ancient than that. Oh, and third, my grandfather. He just had his 90th birthday!"

Start Place your game pieces here	... that are red	... that are made of metal	... that are made of wood
... that are hot	... that are black	... that are tiny	... that are cold
... that are soft	... that are dangerous	... that fly	... that crawl

Name Three Things..

Examples:

*Three things that are green. A plant. A US dollar. An alligator.
*Three things that are ancient. Okay, the Pyramids of Egypt are pretty ancient. They were built thousands of years ago. Next. The Universe. Nothing is more ancient than that. Oh, and third, my grandfather. He just had his 90th birthday!

Start Place your game pieces here	... that are green	... made of metal	... made of wood
... that are valuable	... you carry in your pocket	... that are cold	... that are scary
Go back 3 spaces!	that always happens		that always takes me down in my bag
	what I want like I do in the future.	what always makes me smile	what I like most
	what makes me angry/sad		ish?

Have you...? Oh, when?

Directions:

1. In turns, roll the die. 2. Move your game piece along the board. 3. Read the question on the space where you land out loud. 4. Respond to the question. If the answer is yes, say when the last time was.

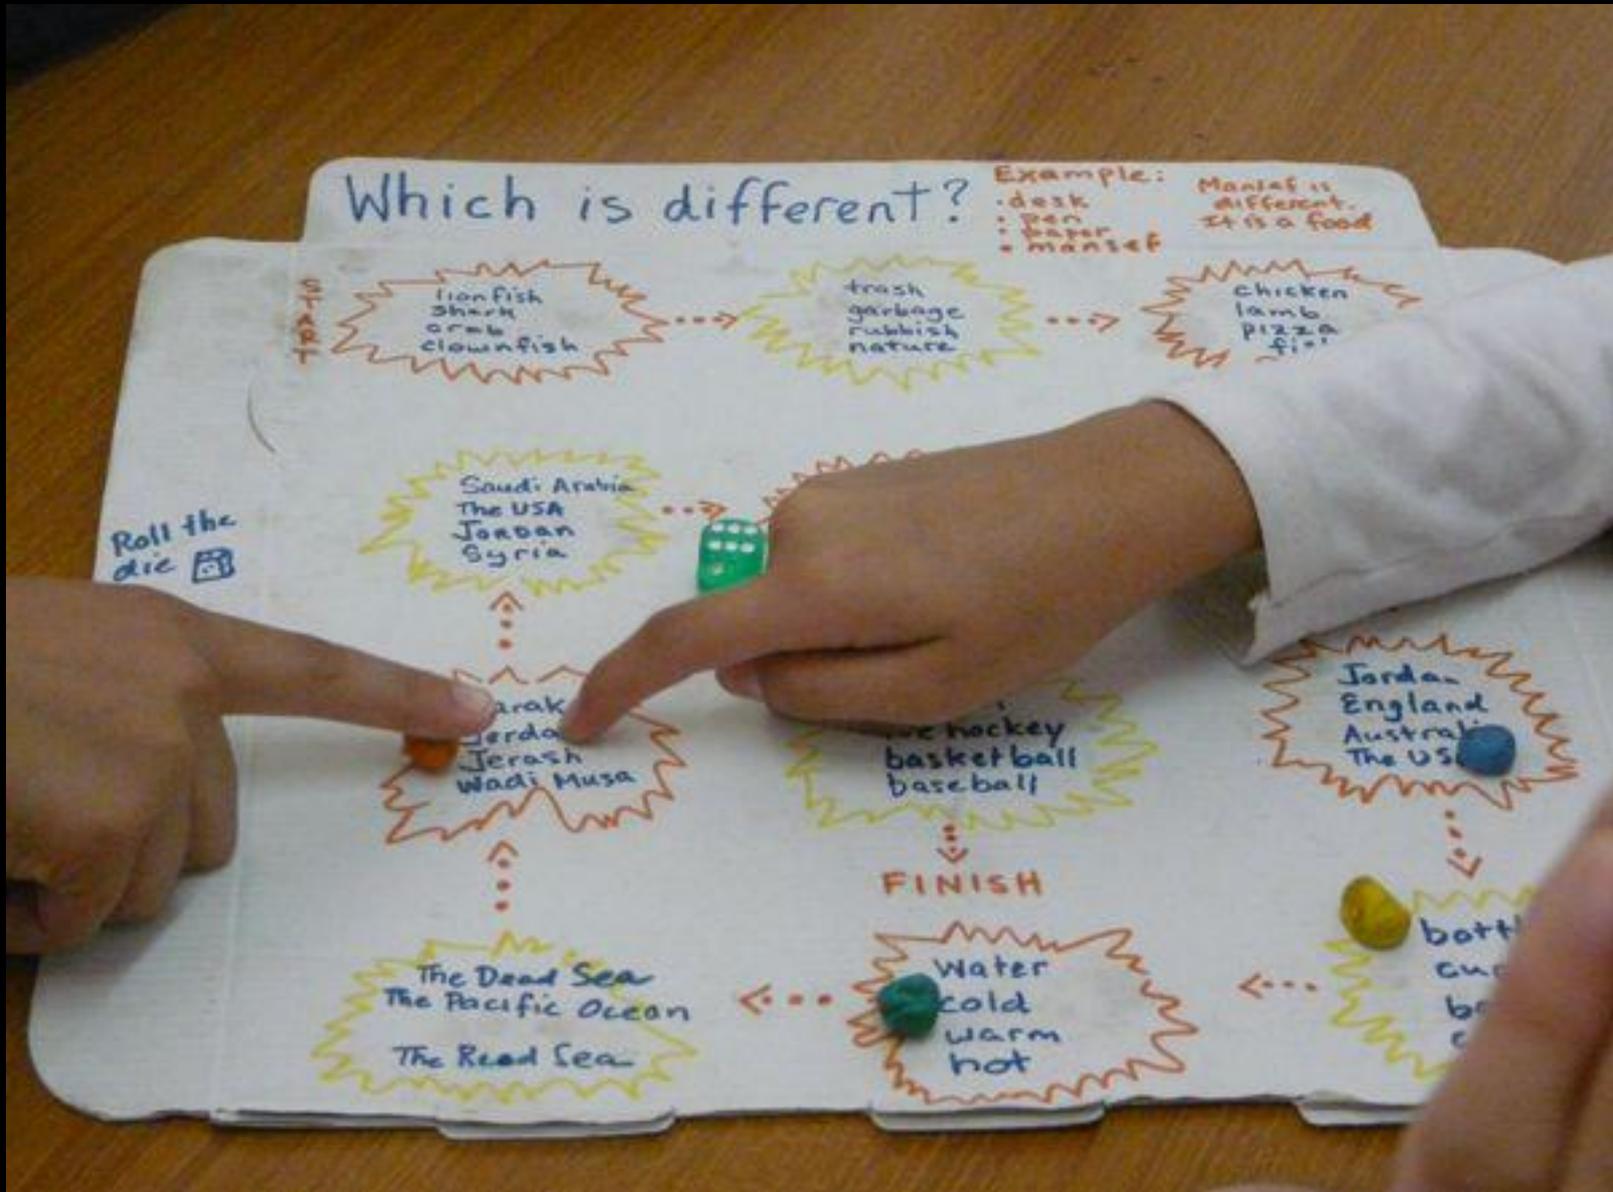

Examples:

*Have you swum in a river? No I haven't.

*Have you swum in an ocean? Yes, I have. The last time was when I visited Florida. I swam in the Atlantic ocean. The water was warm.

*Have I traveled by train? Oh, yeah. Lots of times. Though I haven't taken a train in a while. The last time, I guess, was when I went to Europe and took the train from Paris to Marseille.

Start Place your game pieces here	Have you swum in a river?	Have you swum in an ocean?	Have you traveled By train?
Have you traveled outside of your country?	Have you worn a hat?	Have you ever kissed an animal?	OUCH! Go Back 2 spaces
Have you ever been to Europe?	Have you cooked dinner for someone?	Have you ever sung a song in a car?	Have you ever eaten sushi?
Have you ever lost your keys?	Have you ever seen a ghost?	Have you climbed a mountain?	OUCH! Go Back 6 spaces
Have you ever lost your cell phone?	... Have you ever slept outside, under the stars?	Have you ever borrowed something from someone?	Finish?

Players become “so engrossed... that they forget to act in the classic classroom manner.”

Rixon, *How to Use Games in Language
Teaching*, 1981

Give students the opportunity to be curious,
to explore,

to play

“Stop explaining, start exploring. Give students a chance to guess --and therefore a chance to show that they misunderstand. In the end, it is the degree of student involvement which is important.”

Michael Lewis, The English Verb, 1981

“Natural selection may have transformed play into a vital part of development in some animals...

By playing young animals can teach themselves [italics mine] about their environment. They can try out complicated maneuvers that will serve them well later in life. Play is also an opportunity for animals to bond.

Carl Zimmer, “Games Animals Play,”
Forbes Magazine, 2006

“I’ve missed more than 9000 shots in my career. I lost almost 300 games.
26 times I’ve been trusted to take the game winning shot and missed. I’ve failed over and over and over again
in my life. And that is why I succeed.”

Michael Jordan

“Games lubricate the body
and the mind.”

Benjamin Franklin

Games for All Levels

Have you...? Oh, when?

Directions:

1. In turns, roll the die. 2. Move your game piece along the board. 3. Read the question on the space where you land out loud. 4. Respond to the question. If the answer is yes, say when the last time was.

Examples:

*Have you swum in a river? No I haven't.

*Have you swum in an ocean? Yes, I have. The last time was when I visited Florida. I swam in the Atlantic ocean. The water was warm.

*Have I traveled by train? Oh, yeah. Lots of times. Though I haven't taken a train in a while. The last time, I guess, was when I went to Europe and took the train from Paris to Marseille.

Start Place your game pieces here	Have you swum in a river?	Have you swum in an ocean?	Have you traveled by train?
Have you traveled outside of your country?	Have you worn a hat?	Have you ever kissed an animal?	OUCH! Go Back 2 spaces
Have you ever been to Europe?	Have you cooked dinner for someone?	Have you ever sung a song in a car?	Have you ever eaten sushi?
Have you ever lost your keys?	Have you ever seen a ghost?	Have you climbed a mountain?	OUCH! Go Back 6 spaces
Have you ever lost your cell phone?	... Have you ever slept outside, under the stars?	Have you ever borrowed something from someone?	Finish?

Thanks!

See you on the Ning
