fall off

to decrease, especially in number, sales, profits, etc.

After the holiday season, sales fell off until summer.

fall down

when a person or structure falls to the ground

I slipped on the ice and fell down.

EVEN MORE PHRASAL VER BS with FALL

fall out

to have a relationship be strained or end after an argument

I fell out with Janice because she stole my boyfriend.

fall back on

have the option to use something if other plans aren't successful

If he loses his job during the recession, he has money to fall back on.

