

give someone or something trust or responsibility

The parents put all their hopes in their youngest child.

You put your life in the hands of the pilot when you fly.

to invest money in a business or an account

Tony and Amy each put in $100,000 to start their new business.

to install something such as equipment in the place where it will be used

We are putting in a burglar alarm at our new house.

to spend a particular amount of time or effort doing something

He has been putting in a lot of hours at work this month.

to make an official request, claim, offer, etc.

Jane put in a bid of $2 million to buy the company.

put in