

IDIOM OF THE DAY

in honor of the U.S. Open to be someone else's

move, play,
offer, or turn

the ball is in (someone's) court

Example

We made a reasonable offer for the house, and now the ball is in their court.