

JUST is just great!

JUST = RECENTLY

Mary has just finished her homework.
Now she can go to the movies.

JUST = IMMEDIATELY
SOMETHING IS GOING TO HAPPEN SOON

He is just getting ready now.

JUST = ONLY, MERELY, SIMPLY

Richard is just the spokesman,
not the CEO.

JUST = CLOSE TO THE TIME

Jennifer finished the report just as her boss asked her for it.

JUST = EXACTLY, PRECISELY

This is just the information I need to finish my report.

americanenglish.state.gov

American English
at State

